A decorative sign spelling the word "PARADISE" is mounted on a white door. Each letter is a three-dimensional wooden block with a different scenic landscape painted on its front face. The letters are arranged in a slightly staggered line. The scenes include: 'P' - a rocky coastline with a lighthouse; 'A' - a tropical island with a thatched hut; 'R' - a calm sea meeting a rocky shore; 'A' - a tree on a beach with a boat in the distance; 'D' - a tropical island with a thatched hut; 'I' - a rocky coastline with a lighthouse; 'S' - a tropical island with a thatched hut; 'E' - a tropical island with a thatched hut. The door has a decorative, curved, white-painted panel below the sign.
